Process for Developing a Conservation Bank

Negotiate with the wildlife agencies to:

- Identify target habitats and species, compatible land uses and credit area to be served by bank;
- determine need for habitat enhancement, restoration, and/or creation; then establish criteria for success;
- calculate credits to be given; choose phasing of the bank, if any; name the land manager; and decide ultimate ownership

